PULLMAN BLAZE ON THE LOS ANGELES RAILROAD

I. C. Jensen and Henry Catrow, of Salt Lake City, Received Slight Injuries.

Louis Delario of Laramie, Wyo., Dead When Found—Origin of the Fire Not Known.

The Injured Salt Lakers

I. C. Jensen, Salt Lake, traveling man for Chalmers-Allys and company, Chicago. Dr. Hector Griswold, dentist and manager Griswold Dental company, residence 1148 East First South street.

Henry Catrow, 434 First street. Secretary and Treasurer Ohio Copper company.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Jan. 6.—One passenger was killed and three injured this morning on Los Angeles limited No. 8, when a Pullman sleeper caught fire while the train was running from Council Bluffs to Missouri Valley, en route to Chicago.

Dead.

Louis Delario, Washington, D. C., clerk of the house committee on irrigation.

Injured.

I. C. Jensen, Salt Lake City, slight burns on neck and head.

Henry Catrow, Salt Lake City, right wrist cut by glass.

Mrs. B. Higgins, Carbondale, Pa., suffered from exposure.

The Northwestern train was within a mile of Loveland near Missouri Valley, when passengers in the Pullman car Redfield were aroused by smoke. The origin of the fire could not be determined, but it had undoubtedly been smoldering for some time before being discovered, as the car was filled with dense smoke, which suffocated the passengers.

Dead When Found.

Louis Delario, aged 22, whose home is in Laramie, Wyo., but who has for some time held the position of clerk of the house committee on irrigation, was dead when found.

The fire had started in or near his berth and the flames had reached his body, almost denuding it and causing some disfigurement. Delario's Washington address is 1001 K street, Northwest.

The passengers from the burned car lost practically all the personal effects they had with them, most of them escaping in their sleeping clothes.

The cause of the fire is not known. It is said by the conductor and passengers that it had originated inside the car and apparently in one of the berths. One theory is that it started in a berth occupied by a woman with a small infant, who had been using an alcohol lamp to heat milk for the baby.

FEDERAL LAW IS NOW A NECESSITY

Publicity of Campaign Contributions in New York Proved Success Last Fall.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Perry Belmont, of New York, president of the National Publicity Bill organization, today made public a letter to Governor Hughes of New York, in approval of the governor's utterances regarding the publicity movement. Mr. Belmont writes to the governor as follows:

"On behalf of the Publicity Bill association, of which you have been a member since its inception, I have been authorized by the executive committee to convey to you the appreciation of the organization of the reference made to that movement in your first annual message to the New York legislature.

"The successful operation of the publicity law at the recent state election in New York has given renewed impetus to the movement to obtain a national publicity law. In two years there will be another state election in New York, to be held at the same time as the presidential and congressional elections. The new law compels publicity of contributions and expenditures on the part of state and local political committees. The absence of a federal law, should none be enacted before then, compelling publicity of contributions and expenditures on the part of national and congressional committees, would impair the efficiency of existing state laws and similar laws in those states which have enacted publicity laws. Federal and state publicity laws would supplement each other."

DAMMING LAKE ERIE.

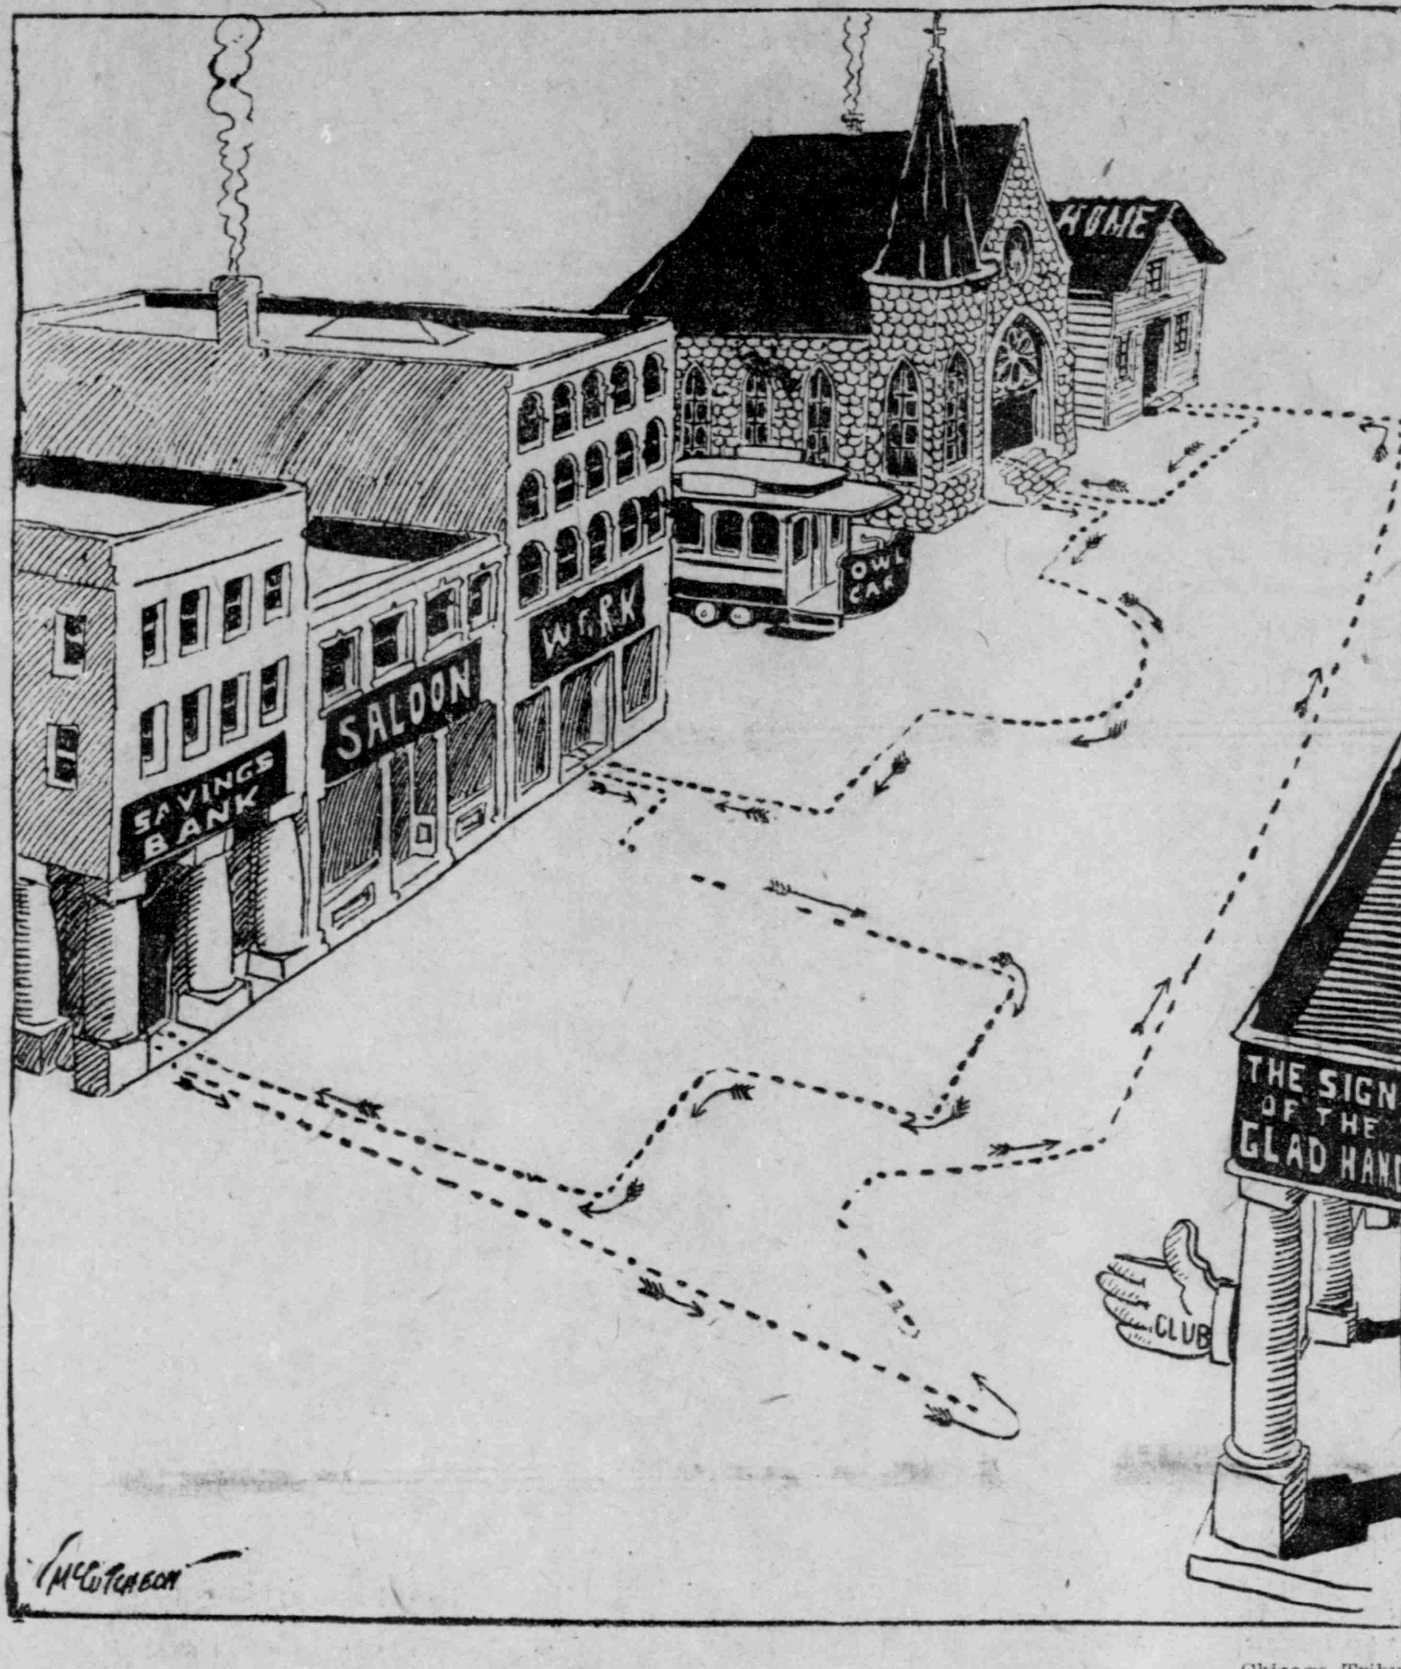

Buffalo, Jan. 6.—Having disposed of the Niagara drainage canal question and the international boundary line on Lake Erie, the International Waterways commission will next take up the question of damming the lower end of Lake Erie, so as to raise the level of the lake.

While no definite plan has been submitted to the commission, it is understood that the view is to build a great dam or regulating works at the lower end of Lake Erie, or somewhere in the Niagara river.

SHAH IMPROVING.

Teheran, Jan. 6.—The condition of the shah was slightly improved today.

MANY PROTEST AGAINST SITE FOR GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Location of Government Building in Logan Causes Much Indignation.

HOWELL'S REALTY HELPED SHEA DENIES THE STORY

BELIEF OBTAINS THAT CHURCH MADE SELECTION.

(Special to The Herald.)

Logan, Jan. 6.—The announcement of the selection of North Main street as the site for the federal building to be erected in this city, has occasioned some very bitter comment. From many points of view the site chosen is regarded as the least desirable of any offered, and it excels none of them in any particular. The site chosen is in the center of the titling office block, and it is more than hinted that the church controlled the selection and that Congressman Howell sought its aid to have the building located near his own holdings. When bids were called for the specifications stated that a corner lot was desired, and therefore there was no thought of the lot selected, until a proposition was suddenly sprung to cut an alley through the titling office block and this make of the proposed site a corner lot.

Then the other fellows got a move on. They pointed out to the department that the property on North Main street was unsuitable because of the ground being water logged. The north end couldn't deny this, so they came back with a proposition to have sewer constructed which would drain that locality. The center street crowd secured a corner lot which they say is thoroughly drained, and they offered it to the government for $1. Now that Uncle Sam has decided to pay the church $2,000 for a site chosen, some of the center streeters are saying unkind things about Congressman Howell and his alleged ally, the church.

The greater part of Mr. Howell's large property holdings in this city are near the site selected. The belief that the church authorities dictated in the matter grew largely out of an incident that occurred here some two months or more ago. Some one suggested that the new building should be put upon a corner of the tabernacle square—that one corner could be used for that and the other corner for a public library. This suggestion seemed to meet with instant popular favor, and finally a well-known member of the upper authorities of the church broached the matter to Joseph F. Smith, when visiting here. Mr. Smith was shown the property and with him, which of course settled it, and the report was at once given out that the tabernacle square site would be chosen.

A few days afterward the same ecclesiastical visitor, Joseph F. Smith in Salt Lake City, was seen for the purpose of having the necessary deeds made out. He was amazed when told in the blunt manner of fact that the matter had been arranged a week before, and that the North Main street site had been offered. The wise ones promptly threw up the sponge when this story came out, saying, "What's the use of kicking; the church and Howell will win," and now we told you so.

The center streeters sent in many protests, and put in a good deal of work, as a result of which they are very tired and a whole lot wiser.

HAD TWO ACCIDENTS.

North German Lloyd Steamer in Hard Luck.

Naples, Jan. 6.—Lloyd's reports that the North German Lloyd steamer Prinzessin Irene, in leaving port Saturday night for New York, was caught in a strong windstorm and damaged. She was obliged to re-enter the harbor and, early this morning, collided with the steamer Moltke. Both were damaged and will be compelled to remain here for repairs.

The 550 passengers on board the Prinzessin Irene became panic-stricken and several of them were slightly injured.

HARRIMAN DOING WELL.

New York, Jan. 6.—At the residence of E. H. Harriman tonight it was said that Mr. Harriman, who underwent an operation about a week ago, was, in the opinion of his physicians, doing very well. Mr. Harriman, it was added, was down to dinner today. The physician said that the operation was a needed absolute rest for perhaps a week or ten days more.

ANARCHIST MEETING BROKEN UP ON ACCOUNT OF VIOLENT UTTERANCES

Alexander Berkman, Who Shot H. C. Frick in 1892; Emma Goldman and Others Arrested.

New York, Jan. 6.—Alexander Berkman, who last summer was released from the state's prison after serving fourteen years for an attack on Henry C. Frick following the Homestead, Pa., riots of 1892; Emma Goldman and two others were arrested today by detectives who broke up an anarchist meeting on the East Side. Emma Goldman made the speech which moved the police to action, while Berkman exhorted the audience to disobey the command to disperse. The other prisoners are John R. Coryell, who presided at the meeting, and Israel L. Schwartz, a youth of 16 years, who refused to leave the hall when it was cleared.

Emma Goldman is charged with a violation of that section of the penal code which makes it a felony to give utterance from a public platform to incendiary speeches. Berkman and Coryell are held as accessories.

Stopped by the Police.

Emma Goldman had not proceeded far in her address when she was interrupted by the police, according to whom she said, among other things, in English:

"It is ridiculous to think that society cannot get along without government. We will say to the government: 'Give us what belongs to us in peace, and if you do not give it to us in peace we will take it by force.' As long as I live and am able to explain myself, I will be opposed to government, and as I live and as my brain dictates will use force against a government."

As the detectives moved toward the stage there was a stampede for the exits, which Berkman tried to stop. He asked the police headquarters to define "anarchy" as he understood the term. Berkman said: "I believe as an anarchist in government without force. The foundation of the present and all government is force. I believe society is perfectly capable of governing itself."

Alagotran and Beckman were later admitted to bail, a bond of $2,000 in each case being furnished.

Emma Goldman and Beckman were later admitted to bail.

ESCAPE OF THE BANDIT CHIEF

Sultan's Troops Capture Raisuli's Stronghold After Almost Bloodless Battle.

Tangier, Jan. 6.—Zinat, Raisuli's stronghold, was virtually destroyed by fire, and fell into the hands of the troops of the sultan at noon today, after a short and almost bloodless fight.

Raisuli and his 700 followers succeeded in escaping to the mountains despite the elaborate plans of War Minister Gabbas. No firing took place last night, but at 10 o'clock this morning the artillery opened on the town. The Moorish guns showed utter incapacity in handling their guns and the infantry fired haphazard. Two shells dropped inside the fortress without reply and thereupon a body of the sultan's troops charged, and reached the walls amid desultory shots from the surrounding brush.

Garrison Escaped.

The town gates were open, but there were no occupants of the place except fifteen prisoners, including among whom were Raisuli's sons.

A detachment of the government troops continued firing in the direction of the mountains, where Raisuli and his followers were fleeing.

Meanwhile the other government troops pillaged the stronghold.

No fatalities in the fighting today were reported. It is thought probable that the Raisulis carried off their dead.

Minister of War Gabbas, who has not left Tangier since the operations, is expected next to move against the pretender to the throne, Mulai Mohammed, a brother of the sultan, from whose followers there have been many defections recently.

The Spanish officers of the international police created by the Algeiras convention have arrived here and will take up their duties at the end of the month.

Corey Family Reticent.

Pittsburg, Jan. 6.—Nothing definite is known regarding the alleged matrimonial intentions of W. E. Corey and Mabel Gilman. While many reports are current, they all lack confirmation and the Corey family here is reticent.

It was learned tonight that Albert Thomas, who married Mabel Gilman's sister, and was given employment by the United States Steel corporation, and is employed in the tube plant of the United States Steel corporation.

ETRURIA IN A STORM.

One of the Crew Killed and Six Others Seriously Injured.

New York, Jan. 6.—One of the crew was killed and six others seriously injured when the Cunard liner Etruria was fighting her way through a severe storm on Friday night. The body of the man killed was buried at sea. The others injured were in her hospital when the steamer arrived today from Queenstown.

Captain Potter said today that never during his many years as a seaman had he experienced such rough weather.

FUNERAL OF LAUNITZ.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 6.—The funeral of Major General Von der Launitz, prefect of St. Petersburg, who was assassinated last Tuesday, was held today. The emperor and empress sent wreaths. Delegations from the League of Russian People, which is actively combating the revolution, participated in the exercises.

STEEL MAGNATE ABOUT TO MARRY

W. E. Corey and Mabel Gilman Spooning the Happy Days Away in Gay Paris.

Paris, Jan. 6.—Whether W. E. Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, will marry Mabel Gilman, the American singer, before he returns to the United States cannot be ascertained definitely. When Mr. Corey arrived here a week ago, it was understood that the wedding would not take place during the present trip, and as late as last Wednesday Miss Gilman told intimate friends that the date of the ceremony had not been fixed. If these plans have been changed the wedding probably will take place in England, in order to obviate the vexatious formality of the French law.

Pair Often Together.

Mr. Corey has taken no special pains to hide his movements or to conceal the fact of his engagement to Miss Gilman. She and Mr. Corey, accompanied by Miss Gilman's mother, take daily automobile trips in the Bois de Boulogne, and Mr. Corey frequently dines with brother and daughter at some fashionable restaurant.

After the return to the United States of Mr. and Mrs. Riggs, the latter being Miss Gilman's sister, who chaperoned her during her tour of the continent, Miss Gilman and her mother lived in a villa at St. Cloud, often motoring into Paris. Miss Gilman's sister, Cordelia, several months ago married Albert Thomas, son of a clerk in a Paris real estate office.

Mr. Corey has given Mr. Thomas employment with the United States Steel corporation at Pittsburg.

STEEL MARRIED TWICE.

Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 6.—J. R. Steele, who, it is supposed, wrecked the Fourth Street National bank of Philadelphia yesterday by throwing a bomb, worked here as a concrete construction foreman for several months. Mrs. Steele and a 10-year-old son were seen at their home tonight. Steele left here Thursday morning. Up to tonight his wife had heard nothing of him. She did not know that his name was connected with the wrecking of the bank until today. There is no doubt in the minds of friends of Steele, from descriptions in the press, that the bomb-thrower is the same man.

When told of the statements attributed to Mrs. Irene Steele in Chicago, Mrs. Steele said Steele was divorced from her before his second marriage.

Chicago Wife's Statement.

Chicago, Jan. 6.—Mrs. Irene Steele, who claims to be the wife of the alleged Philadelphia bank wrecker, disclaimed all knowledge tonight of the Lynchburg woman who asserted she was married to Steele some time ago. She declared she had been married to Steele fourteen years, that they never had any domestic trouble and that within two weeks she had received a check from Steele for $50.

FUSE AND CAPS FOUND IN ROOM

Rollol Steele Undoubtedly the Man Who Threw the Bomb in Philadelphia Bank.

Philadelphia, Jan. 6.—With the finding today of the personal effects of the man who threw a bomb in the Fourth Street National bank on Saturday, killing Cashier W. Z. McLean and himself, there is little doubt left in the minds of the police officials that he was Rollo Steele of Garner, Ia.

The Bomb-Thrower Slept Friday Night at the Grant House, a hasty note for the night of the explosion was sent to the outskirts of the tenderloin, frequented mostly by respectable working people. He registered as J. R. Steele of New York, and carried a grip which he refused to allow the colored porter to carry to the room.

When detectives searched the room today they found several yards of slow fuse, a number of detonating caps, a revolver and a box of cartridges, together with a number of tools and some clothing. There was a suit bearing the tag of Chinese clothing house, and a pair of overalls, marked with the name of a Lynchburg, Virginia, merchant. As Rollo Steele was reported to have been in Chicago and Lynchburg, in the latter place within a few days, the police say there is little doubt as to the bomb-thrower's identity.

It is Probable that none of those hurt by the explosion will die.

William J. Crump, the negro messenger in the bank, and bodyguard of President Richard H. Rushton of the institution, who is the most seriously injured, was today operated on. His condition was such a few hours after the explosion that he was reported dead, but he rallied and the physicians operated in an effort to save his eyesight, though his eyes will never regain their normal condition. Crump after the operation said his recollection of the affair coincided in the main with the statement made yesterday by President Rushton.

Here's Chance for a Dollar

This is the story made up from advertisements and headlines in yesterday's paper. The first correct solution of it which is brought into the office gets a dollar. Hurry.

"American anarchist makes plea for the simple life. It opens in the morning promptly at eight o'clock. For the stomach's sake, make your home cheerful. 100 go carts and baby carriages will be carried over to next season.

"A man of mystery, determined to make a clean sweep, buys a big tract, Chicago to New York, that will soon develop into a valuable property. Thousands of dollars to delight feminine eyes.

"Have you seen Brown's will. Don't miss it. Young forger is cited for contempt, makes sworn denial, tries to escape to Philippines, probably safe.

"Giant powder bomb dropped into the Short Line yards, big crowd of people leave for an unknown destination."
